The 2024 Gold Keyboard Award, the highest honor among the New York Press Club’s Annual Journalism Awards, will be presented to Annika Pergament, Melissa Rabinovich, Leisha Maitan, Dan Keese, Kristie Lee Neuberger and Dan Komarinetz of Spectrum News NY1 News for their story, “In the Dark: New York’s Child Welfare Deaths,” which focused on a number of tragedies involving children in the care of New York City’s Administration for Children’s Services.

The annual Nellie Bly Cub Reporter award was won by Maya Rosen for her Jewish Currents story, “Maya Rosen Covering Israeli Politics on Gaza” while the Rev. Mychal Judge Heart of New York award will go to three outlets in the newspaper, radio and online categories: Alex Vadkul of The New York Times for “Stories of New York,” Jennifer Vanasco, Ciera Crawford and Isabella Gomez of NPR for “Vibrating Haptic Suits Give Deaf People a New Way to Feel Live Music,” and Zulekha Nathoo, Ian McDonald, Carissa Quiambao of USA Today Humankind for “Nonnas Know Best: At This Restaurant, Grandmas to all the Cooking.”

The awards will be presented at the Press Club’s Annual Awards and Installation Dinner at The Cornucopia Majesty: Pier 81 (41st and 12th Ave/Hudson River) NYC on Monday, June 3, 2024, beginning at 7 pm. Tickets are $200 for members and $225 for non-members and may be purchased here.
Additional winners in more than 30 categories were selected from almost 600 entries submitted by TV, radio, newspapers, websites, magazines, and newswires in New York City and around the U.S.

New York Press Club President Debra Toppeta applauded all the award recipients and added that the level of entries attests to the critical work journalists do.

"Even the many challenges journalists face today, the work that so many do is outstanding," said Toppeta. "They are a testament to the critical role the media plays in the U.S. and around the world. We are honored by this opportunity to laud all these reporters, editors, writers and producers."
